

REMARKS

Enclosed is a Power of Attorney in favor of the undersigned. The Examiner's cooperation is sought in ensuring that future correspondence is directed to:

Alan Israel, Esq.
Kirschstein, Ottinger, Israel & Schiffmiller, P.C.
489 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10017

On the merits, new parent claim 21 includes the subject matter of canceled claims 13 and 19-20 and emphasizes that an interface (see Fig. 6) is provided on the display of the terminal for prompting the mobile sender to sequentially collect data for viewing on the display. The data collected includes data 601 manually entered by the sender, for example, the destination ("John Smith and Mary Jones"), and data 605 automatically entered by the reader, for example, "customer name, company, and product".

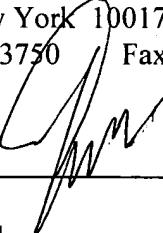

In rejecting claims 19-20, the Examiner relied on col. 4, lines 16-24 of U.S. Patent No. 5,672,860 to Miller which, at best, discusses that a terminal unit may be interfaced with a computer. Nothing is disclosed or suggested that it may be desirable to prompt a user to sequentially collect data by a combination of manually entered data and automatically entered data.

Allowance of claims 21-26 is respectfully requested.

Wherefore, a favorable action is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
